

Political Campaign Sign Regulations

Seminole County & Municipalities

County/Municipality	Initial Fees	Building Permit	Removal	Contact	Ordinance
Seminole County	None	Campaign signs are allowed after the candidate's qualification for an election. No signs are permitted in the ROW or on public property. No signs greater than 32 square feet allowed on a commercial property or 16 square feet on a residential property. Permission must be obtained by the property owner prior to placing signs. No building permit is required for signs less than the 32/16 square foot thresholds. Signs greater than 32 square feet require a building permit.	7 Days after campaign. Once the candidate is no longer a viable candidate.	Building Division 407-665-7050	Seminole County – Land Development Code/Chapter 2 Special Event, Sec 30.13.3.-Sign standards, Sec. 30.13.7.-Building permit required
Altamonte Springs	None	No signs permitted in the ROW or on public property. No signs greater than 32 square feet on commercial property or 16 square feet on residential property. No building permit is required for signs less than the 32/16 square foot thresholds.	7 Days after campaign. Once the candidate is no longer a viable candidate.	Building and Fire Safety Department 407-571-8433	Political Sign Information Acknowledgement Form/Receipt; provided by City Clerk. Altamonte Springs Land Development Code, Article III, 3.42.10 – Political Signs
Casselberry	None	No political sign is permitted in the public ROW. Temporary political campaign signs no larger than 6 square feet residential property and 32 square feet in commercial districts. All signs must be placed on private property with pre-authorization of property owner.	7 Days after campaign	City Clerk 407-262-7700 x1133	City of Casselberry Temporary Political Campaign Sign Placement Criteria: (Section 3-16.4, Article XVI, Signs, Chapter III, Performance Criteria, of the ULDR)
Lake Mary	None	No political sign is permitted in the public ROW. Temporary Signs can be no larger than 6 square feet on residential property, 32 square feet commercial property and 64 square feet in commercial/industrial/office zoning districts.	7 Days after campaign	Community Development 407-585-1459	Lake Mary Land Development Code – Sign Regulations Table 2 Temporary Signs.
Longwood	No permit or fees are required during the election period for temporary ground signs and yard signs meeting the standards of LDC 6.6.0.	Signs 6 square feet or less residential areas and 32 square feet maximum for non-residential areas. No signs are permitted on the ROW or public property.	7 Days after campaign	City Clerk 407-260-3441	Longwood Development Code Article VI Signs, Ordinance 22-2220, LDC 6.6.0 Temporary Signs

County/Municipality	Initial Fees	Building Permit	Removal	Contact	Ordinance
Oviedo	$25	No signs permitted in the public ROW. No permit is needed if the sign is six square feet or less. Please Note: political campaign signs are prohibited on city property. Exception the placement of political campaign signs or advertisements on City-owned property shall be prohibited unless the property serves as a polling place for an election. Any political campaign sign may be removed by a code enforcement agent if not properly placed according to city ordinance 1757.	10 Days after campaign	Permits maybe obtained from Planning Division of Development Services Dept. 407-971-5794 407-971-5759	Ordinance No. 1757 Section 30-3 Political campaign signs
Sanford	$250 (larger than 32 sf)	No signs permitted in the public ROW or on public property. No signs greater than 32 square feet on commercial property or 6 square feet per sign, not to exceed a cumulative total of 30 additional square feet assigned a residential/classification. All such campaign signs shall be located on private property.	7 Days after campaign	Planning & Development Services 407-688-5146	Schedule K of Land Development Regulations Section 19.0 – Temporary Signs
Winter Springs	$45	No signs permitted in the public ROW. Temporary signs no larger than 6 square feet on residential property and 9 square feet for non-residential property. No temporary sign shall exceed thirty-six (36) square feet in area.	3 Days after campaign	Building Department 407-327-1800	